Innovation and sustainability

Innovation and sustainability are the pillars of FiberCop's strategic development. The company allocates significant resources to the expansion of fibre optics – a more sustainable, future-oriented technology compared with traditional solutions – both in areas already equipped with fibre infrastructure and in those historically served exclusively by copper networks. Investments are also supported by funds from the National Recovery and Resilience Plan (PNRR), under which FiberCop is allocated approximately €2.3 billion. The tenders under the PNRR are key to the country's technological progress and digitalisation. The projects launched will allow previously disadvantaged areas to benefit from ultra-fast connectivity comparable to that available in major urban centres.

Shareholding structure

FiberCop's shareholding structure is as follows: 37.8% held by the US fund KKR Infrastructure, 17.5% by the Canadian pension fund CPP Investments, 17.5% by the Abu Dhabi sovereign fund ADIA, 16% by the Italian Ministry of Economy and Finance (MEF), and 11.2% by the Italian infrastructure fund F2i.
